

DAILY SWING TRADING GUIDE

OCTOBER 25, 2016

Ryan Belknap

Good evening folks. It was another rather dull day as far as broad market action was concerned. None of the indexes moved much and there weren't many solid prospects to be found either. In fact, the only good new signals that were fired were on stocks that are about to report earnings either this evening or tomorrow. So, we will not be placing any new trades today. As we all know, it is a mistake to force a trade. We will wait and see how things pan out and hopefully we will have some new opportunities make themselves available tomorrow. We look forward to seeing you then.
